

Hartwig Tauber

FTTH Council Europe Director General

Biography

Hartwig Tauber, 37, is director general of the FTTH Council Europe. He has more than ten years of experience in the broadband and ICT fields. Hartwig Tauber worked as a consultant and managed several national and international broadband projects in Austria, and he is a member of the ICT Taskforce of the Austrian government. In 2003 he became professor for e-business management at the IMC University of Applied Sciences in Krems. Hartwig Tauber holds a masters degree in economics and informatics from the University of Vienna and a postgraduate masters degree in telematics management from the Danube University Krems.