Kathleen Franco

AT&T Services, Inc.
Executive Director, Public Policy

Biography

Ms. Franco joined AT&T (then Ameritech) in 1998. Her duties include responsibility for regulatory policy for core retail services and emerging services, including converged wireline-wireless services, enterprise services and consumer broadband services. She is also responsible for developing AT&T's policies on broadband reporting and carrier of last resort. Prior to joining AT&T, Ms. Franco worked at the FCC, serving as legal advisor to the Common Carrier Bureau Chief and Commissioner Rachelle Chong and as an interim legal advisor to Commissioner Michael Powell. Prior to the FCC, she was an associate at the law firm of Arent, Fox, Kintner, Plotkin and Kahn in Washington D.C. Ms. Franco is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center and Boston College.
